

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Rev. Sherrod Soule, chaplain of the Connecticut senate and well known in this part of the state, is to give the sermon at a Sunday afternoon service at the Congregational church at South Killingly.

Killingly High school's football team is scheduled to appear at this (Sunday) afternoon in its first game of the season and a team representing the New London Vocational school will furnish the opposition.

People in the Beginners' Primary and Junior departments will take part on Sunday in Rally day exercises to be held at the Congregational church.

Contractors who are building the new highway to Littleton have made good progress during the present week.

Following is a list of the newly admitted electors of the town of Killingly, 44 in number: Joseph Z. Jette, Jeanette A. Lariviere, Caleb D. W. Shippee, Camille K. Coit, August Chapin, Godfrey Ferland, Panistina D. Smith, Frank E. Gallup, Susan Greeley, Mrs. Genevieve Tessier, Orphir Pechie, Andrew Robideau, Hiram D. Warren, Mrs. Carrie Downs, Thomas R. Danielson, Arthur E. Perry, Agnes P. Malton, Meddie Harrod, Betsy S. Shippee, Cora A. Shippee, Byron H. Young, Odlian Gandreau, Mary Louise Gandreau, Adelle Miller, Nelson Millard, Daniel P. Arthur Eady, until recently with a Pawtucket paper, has come to Danielson to succeed Albert F. Ralston, resigned, as editor of the local paper.

During the past three days many motorists have made it a point to run their cars over the new Brooklyn-Hampton highway, on what might be termed inspection trips.

Miss Irene A. Fluke of Lowell is spending the week-end with friends in Danielson.

Those interested in politics in Killingly may be described as peacefully awaiting the coming of the annual town election, about which very little is heard although it is only just over two weeks away.

Those who visited the quarters of the Pastimes club in Center street Friday afternoon or evening were pleased with what has been done to make a pleasant gathering place for the young men interested.

F. I. Racine has purchased a heavily wooded farm in the town of Voluntown, which later spring operations are to be undertaken on the property.

Genevieve Williams of Hartford, president of the Connecticut Sunday school association is to be one of the speakers at the convention of the Windham county Sunday school association to be held in Brooklyn Monday next.

PUTNAM

It was stated here Friday that present plans call for the presentation of prisoners held to answer to criminal charges in the superior court here Wednesday, Oct. 6. State Attorney Charles E. Scaris has been preparing for some time to present the long list of cases awaiting disposition, and State Defender Charles L. Torrey has been at the county jail at Brooklyn to confer with prisoners whom he will be called upon to represent during the clearing up of the cases on the criminal list.

Not in years have so many prisoners been awaiting trial in Windham county on criminal charges. The majority of those who will be presented in court are young people, many of them in their teens, but they are charged with serious offenses, breaking and entering being a crime of which a number are accused. Bad times, general unrest and post-war conditions are accounted as responsible for many of the cases.

Figures prepared at the office of the secretary of the town school committee show that the average cost per pupil at the high school during the year ending

July 14 last was $107.25, while the cost per pupil in the graded schools was $45.78. The average cost per pupil was $49.83, which is a slight decrease from the figures for the preceding year.

The board of management and committee of visitors of the Windham County Temporary Home for Children have sent out announcements of their annual meeting, to be held at the home in the Sawyer district of Putnam Wednesday, Oct. 6.

The board of management and committee of visitors of the Windham County Temporary Home for Children have sent out announcements of their annual meeting, to be held at the home in the Sawyer district of Putnam Wednesday, Oct. 6.

Following is a list of those admitted to citizenship at the session of the superior court held here for naturalization purposes, Judge L. P. Waldo Marvin presiding: Albert Frank Muller; Norman H. Hild; Joseph J. Novak; Rogatien Lavalee; David Turpie Black; John Riding; Samuel James Gordon; Zoel Beauregard; Cleophas Laflamme; Joseph LaRoche; Frank Billings; Joseph Hanna; William H. George; Right Kay; Harry Oates; Emile Laurencie.

A hydrant was broken and water flowed in unchecked volume for a time on Thursday evening when a car owned by Charles Trudeau of this city and a machine bearing Massachusetts registration plates crashed at the corner of Providence and Main streets. No one was seriously injured in the crash, though a girl in the Massachusetts car was cut by flying glass.

Putnam High school is to have a football team this fall, for the first time in years. This year's revival of this strenuous fall sport in the high schools of Windham county, for it recently has been noted that Killingly High school also has a football team this fall for the first time in nearly two decades.

Upwards of a score of candidates came out to try for places on the Putnam High team, which is being coached by Sub-master Charles L. Southey.

Gilbert Perry, son of City Engineer and Mrs. C. E. Perry, is a senior Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston, and Monday, to pursue a course in hydraulic engineering.

One of the youngest of Putnam's World War veterans, who volunteered for service, going out with a Danielson coast artillery company that later was incorporated into the 56th Coast Artillery, was transferred before the company went overseas and at Fortness, Munroe, Va., later qualified as a master gunner.

Mr. Perry has studied engineering for several years and the course he is to take at Boston will be supplementary to studies already completed in engineering lines.

Members of the town of Pomfret will, at the annual town meeting, on the first Monday in October, pass upon the matter of authorizing the employment of a district nurse in that territory and upon the making of necessary appropriation for defraying the expenses.

Another matter to be taken up by Pomfret voters at the annual meeting will be relative to providing a permanent honor roll of the men who represented the town during the World War.

Mrs. Beatrice Kennedy of Eastford, who was to have sailed for England this month, has postponed her visit on account of the case of her mother.

Dr. and Mrs. T. Morris Murray and daughters are expected to return within a few days to their home in Pomfret after a visit in Europe. Dr. Murray formerly of Georgetown university faculty, gave his valuable services to the local selective service board as an examiner during the World War.

There is a good prospect that the state highway department will during the coming year, construct the two remaining miles to be improved between North Woodstock and the Massachusetts line on the Southbridge route.

If Massachusetts carries out its project of meeting the Connecticut state highway the last of the broken lines of all state highways in this part of southern New England will have been eliminated and Putnam will have an improved highway route in every direction out of this city.

The following despatch relative to an inn with which scores of Putnam people are familiar has been of vast interest in Rhode Island.

Three separate attempts to burn the century-old Chapeau inn, in the center of Chapeau Village, were made

DECLARES SHE WILL NOT REMAIN SILENT

Gratitude and a Desire to Help Others Leads Mrs. Terrell to Give Facts.

Mrs. Nellie Terrell, 25 Hawkins St., is still another highly esteemed Waterbury woman whose deep sense of gratitude and desire to benefit others is not content to remain silent regarding the benefits she has derived from the use of Tanlac. Mrs. Terrell has resided in Waterbury all her life and has a host of devoted friends.

"It is nothing less than wonderful," said Mrs. Terrell, "the way I got my strength back after I began taking Tanlac. About a year ago, while leaving the house hurriedly for work, I was struck by a fall that bruised me in so bad that I was so seriously injured I lay for several weeks and thought I was going to be confined to my bed. Even after getting out of bed, I had no appetite and had lost so much weight and strength it was impossible for me to get on my feet and I generally spent most of the day lying down."

"One day I read a statement that caused me to try Tanlac and the medicine has built me up until I feel as strong and as well as I did before my accident. My appetite has been so good, my weight has returned and my friends are speaking about how well I look and I feel as if I am getting younger every day. I heartily recommend Tanlac to every one I see."

Tanlac is sold in Norwich by National Drug Stores Corp., and Taffville Pharmacy and in Plainfield by F. L. Mercier.

Within three hours last Friday night, just one day after deeds had been filed transferring the property from the Steere family, which has owned it for years, to John W. Houston, president of the Nasonville Bottling Company.

Fire hose laid to combat the most serious of the three fires was slashed into ribbons twice while the firemen were working. The blaze was finally extinguished only after a dozen Chapeau men, armed with rifles, revolvers and shotguns, stood guard over the pipe line to keep it intact.

The place was raided by Police Chief Hawkins after the fire and he seized 39 cases of liquor. Edward O'Rourke, found in the place, was ordered to appear in the federal court on liquor charges. He is a World War veteran and claimed to run a secret parlor. The streets were patrolled by men with guns and rifles.
